

The Network

ADVOCATING AGAINST
DOMESTIC VIOLENCE
CELEBRATING 40 YEARS

Communications & Marketing Intern

The Network – Advocating Against Domestic Violence

Job Title:	Communications & Marketing Intern (unpaid)
Location:	Virtual
Supervised by:	Communications and Public Relations Coordinator
Supervises:	N/A
Hours per week:	10-20hrs per week

Position Summary:

The Communications & Marketing Intern will assist in the tasks necessary to ensure The Network's success in connecting with our media community. The Communications & Marketing Intern will help with the development and management of communications that increase public and potential client awareness of—and support for—The Network's mission, values, programs, and services. Primarily, this position will be responsible for curating relevant content to post or respond to on social media, attending staff and membership meetings, and updating The Network's website content, covering events hosted by The Network and membership agencies, and designing original content.

Requirements/Responsibilities:

- Strong writing and artistic skills.
- Able to communicate about intimate partner violence and related issues to a diverse audience on a variety of platforms.
- Interest in domestic violence advocacy and social justice.
- Experienced with social media, including Twitter, Facebook, Instagram, and Snapchat.
- Able to distill complex information into accessible and interesting content.
- Comfortable using hashtags, story feature, and Canva regularly.
- Assist with email creation and dissemination to The Network Staff and Membership as needed.
- Create images and infographics for social media and broader distribution.
- Devoted time each month to building a relationship between media outlets and The Network. Communications intern will be encouraged to collaborate with policy intern to pull data from the policy department that can be used to share with media outlets.
- Seek out news, articles, and studies related to Intimate Partner Violence to share.

To apply for this position, please send your resume, application, and cover letter to Luz Magdaleno Flores lflores@the-network.org